For Professionals

SALI provides legal training, technical assistance and resources for professionals working with sexual assault victims.

- Training for Rape Crisis and Recovery Center staff and volunteers regarding the law and the legal options available for victims.
- Training and technical assistance for attorneys working with survivors.
- Checklists to help victims, advocates and attorneys screen for civil legal needs.
- Low Bono Network of attorneys interested and trained in working with victims. Low bono attorneys receive a reduced fee for their work. Contact SALI if you are interested in participating.

The Sexual Assault Legal Institute (SALI) is part of the Maryland Coalition Against Sexual Assault (MCASA), the statewide collective voice advocating for accessible, compassionate care for survivors of sexual crimes, and accountability for all offenders.

MCASA has helped pass laws to:

- Expand Maryland's rape shield law to protect victims of child sexual abuse and male victims
- Improve rape laws
- Enhance stalking laws
- Increase penalties for child sexual abuse

MCASA needs help from anyone interested in ending sexual violence. For more information on how you can help please contact:
