This course is designed to give useful information to the patrol officer, advocate and nurse for interacting with victims of sexual assault and domestic violence. Information will be provided on new trends emerging in the forensic field.

Various speakers will be utilized to present relevant information on a local level to those interacting with victims. The multidisciplinary team approach will be used for this training.

Upon completion of this course, students will be able to:

1. Identify the role of the prosecution;
2. Identify the role of the state's attorney;
3. Identify the role of law enforcement for the domestic violence victim;
4. Understand the special consideration of reporting for the sexual assault patient.

This course is designed to meet requirements as mandated by the Maryland Police and Correctional Training Commissions and to meet the annual in-service requirements.

Class Size: Restricted size, seating is limited.

Attendance: You must attend the entire class to receive in-service credit.

Dress Code:

To maintain a professional appearance, all in-service officers/staff must follow the prescribed dress code to be admitted to any training held at the Academy.

- Uniform of the day recommended
- Shirt with a collar—No t-shirts or tank tops
- Docker style pants, BDU's or suit—No shorts or jeans
- Full shoe with socks—No sandals

Firearms—All officers wearing a handgun on campus in plain view MUST also wear his/her badge in plain view.

Failure to Adhere to the Dress Code

Academy attendees will be denied admittance to the classroom or range and a report will be sent to the Chief/Sheriff/Warden/Director, stating the reasons the officer/staff was not allowed to attend the training session.
